

This frequently asked questions document covers the Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief (ESSER) Fund and the federal aid it has provided to states and school districts as part of the stimulus and relief packages passed by Congress in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.[^] More information about the ESSER Fund is available in our July 2021 report titled Processes for Receiving & Using ESSER Funds.

What is the ESSER Fund?

Created by Congress as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, the ESSER Fund consists of federal dollars allotted to help state education departments and school districts throughout the country combat the impacts the COVID-19 pandemic has had on students and K-12 education as a whole. Federal dollars were appropriated to the ESSER Fund under the three COVID-19 relief/stimulus packages passed by Congress: the CARES Act, the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSA), and the American Rescue Plan Act (ARP).¹

In total, how much money has the federal government awarded through the ESSER fund?

As part of the three federal COVID-19 relief and stimulus packages, Congress has provided an estimated $190.5 billion in aid through the ESSER Fund. under the three. Table 1 below contains a summary of the ESSER funding allocated under each federal relief/stimulus package.²

Table 1: ESSER Fund Allocations by Relief/Stimulus Package

ESSER Fund Allocation Amounts
CARES Act (ESSER I) ³	$13.5 billion
CRRSA Act (ESSER II) ⁴	$54.3 billion
ARP Act (ESSER III) ⁵	$122.7 billion
Total	$190.5 billion

Who is eligible to receive ESSER funds?

Only SEAs and LEAs within the 50 states, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia are eligible to apply for ESSER aid. The Bureau of Indian Education and the Outlying Areas of the United States have a separate fund in which aid is provided.⁶

How is the amount of ESSER funds a state receives determined?

The amount of ESSER funds a state receives depends on how much Title I funding the state receives. ESSER Fund allocations are based on the proportion of Title I, Part A funds

[^] A more detailed list of frequently asked questions about ESSER funding can be found at https://oese.ed.gov/files/2021/05/ESSER.GEER_FAQs_5.26.21_745AM_FINALb0cd6833f6f46e03ba2d97d30aff953260028045f9ef3b18ea602db4b32b1d99.pdf.

each state is awarded under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). Once a state education agency (SEA) receives ESSER funds, the SEA is required to award 90 percent of the funds to the state's local education agencies (LEAs). The remaining 10 percent of the funds are reserved for use by the SEA.⁷

How much ESSER funding is Connecticut eligible to receive?

Connecticut is eligible to receive an estimated $1.7 billion in ESSER aid. The breakdown of Connecticut's total ESSER funding is provided below in Table 2.⁸

Table 2: Connecticut's ESSER Fund Allocations by Relief/Stimulus Package

Total	$1.7 billion	$1.5 billion	$170.8 million

When did Connecticut receive ESSER funding?

Connecticut has been awarded its funds on different dates depending on the relief/stimulus package. A summary of the dates Connecticut was awarded ESSER funds can be found in Table 5 below.

How is the amount of ESSER funds a school district receives determined?

Under the CARES Act, SEAs allocate funds to LEAs based on the local district's Title I, Part A subgrant amounts for fiscal year 2019.¹⁵ Under the CRRSA Act and the ARP Act, ESSER funds are allocated to school districts based on their Title I, Part A subgrant amounts for FY 2020.¹⁶ not yet awarded, and applications for ESSER funds from the ARP Act have not yet been submitted.¹⁷

What is the process to receive ESSER funding?

Each relief/stimulus package requires a process in order for SEAs and LEAs to receive ESSER funds. However, some steps are the same in all three of the relief/stimulus packages. The general process for receiving ESSER aid is for the SEA and LEA to fulfill the requirements under each relief/stimulus package in order to apply for the eligible funds.¹⁸ For more information about the processes for SEAs and LEAs to receive ESSER funding, please consult our July 2021 report titled Processes for Receiving & Using ESSER Funds.

How long are ESSER funds available?

ESSER funds are available for different periods of time based on each relief/stimulus package. What are state set-aside funds?

State set-aside funds, also known as an SEA reserve, are the 10 percent — or less — of awarded ESSER funds that SEAs may reserve to help address any emergency needs the SEA has identified as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.²⁴

How is the Connecticut State Department of Education using its state set-aside funds?

Connecticut's state set-aside funds are being used by the State Department of Education (CSDE) differently under each relief/stimulus package. Table 3 below shows a summary of how Connecticut's state set-aside funds are being used.

Table 3: Connecticut's Use of State Set-Aside Funds by Relief/Stimulus Package

Are there requirements for reporting how ESSER funds are used by SEAs and LEAs?

Yes, each stimulus package has a requirement for how SEAs and LEAs must report funds. For a detailed explanation for how funds must be reported, please consult our July 2021 report titled Processes for Receiving & Using ESSER Funds.

What is Connecticut required to report how it uses ESSER funds?

Connecticut must report the following:

- Any recipients who receive $150,000 or more in ESSER funds;
- Total amount of funds received from the U.S. Department of Education;
- Amount spent or obligated for allowable uses;
- List of all projects supported by ESSER funds; and
- Information on any subcontracts or subgrants.²⁶

Are ESSER funds subject to a supplanting prohibition?

No, there is no supplanting prohibition for ESSER funds. This means ESSER funds may be used in place of a district's state or local funds for allowable uses. However, the ESSER Fund does contain a Maintenance of Effort requirement, which significantly limits a state's ability to reduce its support for K-12 education using funding provided by the three relief/stimulus packages.²⁷
